“Weddings With A Touch Of Elegance”

Deposits

Should you decide to cancel your event, do not expect your deposits back. Some state laws contend that a deposit given to secure a time, service, or product is not refundable. The only reason a deposit would be returned is if the vendor providing the service/product is unable to deliver as promised and those terms of refund may be defined in the contract and limited to certain circumstances. Deposits are used to purchase product or cover labor and time involved in preparing for an event, regardless of whether or not the event takes place, and cannot be returned later.
